

The NAB petition seeking to bar certain information from being broadcasted over satellite radio systems is without merit and should be rejected. Providers of satellite radio are guilty of nothing but innovation and creativity for which I gladly pay. NAB's position is silly and reactionary. Please reject it.